

Diana Castrillon, Respected Worker's Compensation Attorney, joins Cecere Santana, PA

Diana I. Castrillon, a leading worker's compensation, medical malpractice and personal injury attorney, has joined Cecere Santana, PA.

Castrillon, who was named Outstanding Female Lawyer by the Woman's Lawyers Journal in 2004, is also a member of the Board of the Florida Worker's Advocates, sits on the Executive Council for the Florida Bar Workers Compensation Division and serves on the board of the Broward County Bar Workers Compensation Section.

During her career, Castrillon has fought to ensure the right to benefits of undocumented workers who are injured while working. In 2007, she won a precedent setting case in which she successfully argued that the employer cannot use a person's immigration status as both a shield and a sword; by using his illegal status to be able to pay him reduced wages without tax consequences, but then use this same fact to deny him benefits.

At Cecere Santana, Castrillon will lead the firm's efforts on worker's compensation cases, along with contributing her knowledge and expertise to the areas of personal injury and medical malpractice.

Cecere Santana sponsors 18th Annual Hollywood Beach Latin Festival

Attorneys Erick Santana and Michael Cecere take part at the Hollywood Latin Festival

The raffle winner receives his new television.

This summer, Cecere Santana, PA was a proud sponsor of the 18th Annual Hollywood Beach Latin Festival, a non-profit organization dedicated to create awareness about Hispanic culture. The organization provides a variety of assistance to local organizations in Broward county; including scholarships to Broward Community College and assisting local groups such as the Boys and Girls Club and YMCA. During the event, Cecere Santana, PA raffled a 40" LCD television, which was won by a very happy entrant from Hollywood.
